CHINA CAPABLE
PUBLIC SECTOR
MASTERCLASS

8-12 Apr 2024
17-21 Jun 2024
21-25 Oct 2024

Working with world-class facilitators and experts, the CCPS China Capable Masterclass will build your knowledge and understanding of China, enhance your public sector networks, and support policy work on issues that are vital to New Zealand's future success and security.

Learn first-hand from an exemplary pool of China experts from across business, academia and the public sector as they impart their deep knowledge, experience, and insight through facilitated discussions and scenarios based on real events.

Are you a public sector professional who needs to think globally, nationally, or regionally about the New Zealand government's engagement with China?

The China Capable Masterclass is now recognised as an essential programme for developing New Zealand public sector capability. It is highly valuable to professionals working in any sector of central government in international or domestic affairs who make decisions, shape policy, deliver services, and are impacted by China's growing influence in the world, in the Pacific region, and within New Zealand.

Highly interactive 5-day Masterclass immerses public sector professionals in the complexities of engaging with China, working alongside New Zealand's leading China experts, recounting real events and developing cross-sector solutions to complex scenarios.
